

Master's Thesis Inspiration Meeting

March 9, 2011 at 13:15 – 14:45
Centre for African Studies (CAS), KU
Lecture room 12, Købmagergade 44-46

Are you about to identify a topic for your master's thesis; and are you interested in development in Africa, Asia or Latin America?

The meeting can offer inspiration and tools for how to combine the two and bring your ideas into real life, drawing your attention to possibilities and challenges in work related to Danish development assistance and in carrying out field studies in a developing country.

People with hands-on experiences from developing countries will share their experiences with you and there will be time for questions and discussion:

- Director Stig Jensen, CAS, who will present ideas of development related issues for master's theses,
- Mia Beyer, master student from CAS, (tbc) who will share experiences of gains and challenges of field studies,
- Estelle Fanjaud, consultant from COWI, who will give inspiration for study and career options, and
- Lone Frederiksen from DDRN, who will inform about the possibilities and conditions for applying for economic support from Danida's Travel Grants (next deadline is May 1, 2011).

The meeting is organized by Danish Development Research Network (DDRN) in collaboration with CBS. DDRN is a network with members in Denmark, Europe and developing countries that aims at promoting research for development within the fields of Agriculture, Environment, Good Governance and Economic Development.

For information on DDRN, please visit:
<http://www.ddrn.dk>

Danish
Development
Research
Network
Bringing together knowledge and development