

Communication for Social Change Boutique Conference
29-31 January 2013

Conference Program

Day One
9-9:30	Registration
9:30-10	Welcome and Conference Opening	Centre Co-Directors Pradip Thomas and Elske van de Fliert
10-12	Keynote Conversation	Silvio Waisbord & Jo Tacchi
12-1:30	Lunch
1:30 - 3	Panel 1 – CSC Theory	Pradip Thomas At an Impasse?: Examining the state of Communication for Social Change theory Elena Block Rethinking populism, mediatization and empowerment in Chávez's Venezuela: politics of 'voice' or the rule of symbolic compensation? Murali Shanmugavelan Critiquing communication for social change and development approaches: ending determinism and exploring effects of practice-use approaches on people's lives
3-3:30	Tea Break
3:30-5	Panel 2 – From theory to practice: the challenges of application	Kevin Pamba Participatory communication in an extractive industry business Hanneke Nooren Communication for Conservation in Cambodia: How political context affects communication practices Elske van de Fliert Participatory communication to facilitate transdisciplinary agricultural research for development: experiences from Vietnam and Indonesia
5-6	Breakout Session

Communication for Social Change Boutique Conference
29-31 January 2013

Conference Program

Day Two
9:30-11	Panel 3 – Harnessing Participatory Video for CSC	Lilly Sar Moving Indigenous agricultural knowledge upstream through participatory video in support of rural development Tamara Plush Fostering Social Change through Participatory Video: A Conceptual Framework
11-11:30	Tea Break
11:30-1	Panel 4 – Opportunities, Challenges and Limitations of Visual Methods	Gemma-Rose Turnbull Exploring the methodological and implementation limitations of participatory photography projects Eliza Gregory Twin Lens Reflex: Articulating an aesthetics of photo-based social practice projects Lauren Leigh Hinthorne Looking beyond images: Can purpose-made objects assist participatory development communication processes?
1-2:30	Lunch
2:30 - 4	Panel 5 – Evaluating CSC	Jessica Noske-Turner 10 Years of Evaluation Practice in Media Assistance; who, when, why, and how? June Lennie Tensions, challenges and issues in evaluating communication for development: Findings from recent research and strategies for sustainable outcomes

Communication for Social Change Boutique Conference
29-31 January 2013

Conference Program

		Joys Eggins, Heather Horst, Evangelia Papoutsaki, Jo Tacchi and Verena Thomas The Living Baseline
4-5:30	Breakout Session
6-8	Cocktail Reception & Keynote	Florencia Enghel

Day Three
8:30-9:30	Book Launch	Jo Tacchi
9:30-10	Response from Student Observers	Rosemary + Corrina Liss + Melanie Chloe + Valentina
10-12	Plenary discussion: What have we Learned? And where do we go from here?	Facilitated by Silvio Waisbord, Jo Tacchi and Florencia Enghel
12-1:30	Lunch
– free afternoon –
6-7	Public Lecture Location: The Edge, State Library of Queensland Cultural Centre South Bank	Silvio Waisbord